Proceedings of the 2nd External IQAC Meeting 5-6-2015

- In the previous IQAC meeting some members had suggested to make extra provisions for people who present papers. This issue was considered in presence of the external member and the following decisions were made-
 - a) To adjust time table and accommodate classes of paper presenters in the first few hours.
 - b) To enhance the number of staff who would be provided with financial support.
 - c) To enhance the number of staff who could avail OOD facility.

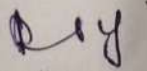

The other issues discussed in the meeting were as follows:

- To conduct Faculty Development Programmes for both teaching and non-teaching staff in order to promote research culture.
- Since the BCA course was newly started, a lab manual with Viva questions was to be prepared for the benefit of students.
- A record for mentoring was to be designed that was to be maintained each mentor.
- In order to lay emphasis on research National Level Conferences were to be conducted.
- It was suggested that ISBN be sought for the conference proceedings.
- Workshops for quality enhancement were to be conducted.
